

The Administration Division encompasses most of the support units for the Sheriff's Office. The Employee Services unit, Training, Records, Public Services, Information Technology employees, and the Court Security unit are all part of the Administration Division.