

The Investigators assigned to the Barrow County Sheriff's Office Crimes Against Persons Unit are responsible for investigating serious violent crimes such as homicides, suspicious deaths, abductions, sex crimes, violent assaults and domestic violence. In addition the CAP Unit investigates missing persons and runaways. The men and women in this Unit are experienced investigators who receive specialized training in a variety of disciplines including death investigations, interviews and interrogations, domestic violence and sex crimes. The Crimes Against Persons Unit consists of a Sergeant and 3 Investigators.

The Crimes Against Persons Unit combats crime by conducting prompt and diligent investigations. Investigators maximize the use of all available technological resources and traditional investigative methods to solve crimes, track down and apprehend suspects and to locate missing persons and runaways. Cases are assigned to Investigators based on the type of crime and their caseload. Once the case is assigned to an Investigator they are responsible for seeing the case through to completion. During this time the Investigator will work closely with and keep in contact with the victim.
