

This Sex Offender List is posted in according with the following Georgia Law:

OCGA 42-1-12: On and after July 1, 1996, a person who is convicted of a criminal offense against a victim who is a minor or who is convicted of a sexually violent offense shall register within ten days after his or her release from prison or placement on parole, supervised release, or probation his or her name and current address; place of employment and vocation, if any; the crime of which convicted; school name and address, if any; and the date released from prison or placed on parole, supervised release, or probation with the appropriate Sheriff's Office as specified in subsection (c) of this Code section in the county where such person will reside for the time period specified in subsection (g) of this Code section.

A person who has previously been convicted of a criminal offense against a victim who is a minor or who has previously been convicted of a sexually violent offense and who is released from prison or placed on parole, supervised release, or probation on or after July 1, 1996, shall register within ten days after such release or placement his or her name and current address; place of employment and vocation, if any; the crime of which convicted; school name and address, if any; and the date released from prison or placed on parole, supervised release, or probation with the appropriate Sheriff's Office as specified in subsection (c) of this Code section in the county where such person will reside for the time period specified in subsection (g) of this Code section.

On and after July 1, 1999, any resident of Georgia who is convicted under the laws of another state or territory, under the laws of the United States, under the Uniform Code of Military Justice, or in a tribal court of a sexually violent offense or a criminal offense against a victim who is a minor shall register within ten days after his or her release from prison or placement on parole, supervised release, or probation. The information such an offender is required to register shall include his or her name and current address; place of employment and vocation, if any; the crime of which convicted; school name and address, if any; and the date released from prison or placed on parole, supervised release, or probation. Such an offender shall register with the appropriate Sheriff's Office as specified in subsection (c) of this Code section in the county where such person will reside for the time period specified in subsection (g) of this Code section.

A person who is a sexually violent predator shall register within ten days after his or her release from prison or placement on parole, supervised release, or probation the information required under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph with the appropriate Sheriff's Office as specified in subsection (c) of this Code section in the county where such person will reside. The Sheriff may prepare a list of such sexual predators providing each person's name, address, and photograph. The Sheriff shall update the list periodically and may post such list in a prominent and visible location in the Sheriff's office and each city hall or primary administration building of every incorporated municipality within the county. Such list shall also be made available upon request to any public or private elementary, secondary, or postsecondary school or educational institution located in the county.

The following individuals are required by OCGA 42-1-12 to register their information with the Barrow County Sheriff's Office as a resident of this county. Because this information is constantly changing, the information found on this Web site may be quickly outdated. A current list can be obtained by visiting the Administrative Offices of the Barrow County Sheriff's Office.